Course Agenda

1. Course Additions

College of Business Administration Course Additions

TAX 4XXX BA-ACCT 3(3,0)
Individual Federal Income Tax: PR: TAX 4001. Study of the basic theory, concepts, practice and methods of determining the taxable income and tax liabilities of individuals. Odd Spring, Even Fall.
Abbrev: (29 of 30 chars) Individual Federal Income Tax
Discussion with others: No conflicts identified
Rationale: To allow students to develop a broader knowledge base in taxation. TAX 4001 is a required course that focuses on federal taxation for business entities and this new course will focus on individual income tax.
Majors taking course: Elective course for BSBA in Accounting

College of Graduate Studies Course Additions

TST 4XXX GRDST-INTERDIS 3(3,3)
test: PR: kj. kj Odd Spring.
Abbrev: (6 of 30 chars) afdklj
Majors taking course: kj

College of Sciences Course Additions

SYA 4XXX COS-SOC 3(3,0)
Geographic Information Systems Applications: PR: SYA 3352, or CI. How to integrate geographic information models with their future research and real-world applications. Fall.
Abbrev: (16 of 30 chars) GIS Applications
Discussion with others: See attached for discussion with departments regarding possible conflicts.
Rationale: This course, which is part of the GIS initiative within COS, is the first in the Sociology Department that will expose students to setting up GIS models using their own data so they can complete spatial analysis.

SYO 3XXX COS-SOC 3(3,0)
Social Networks: Theory & Applications: PR: SYG 2000, ANT 2000, PSY 2012, or Junior Standing. Patterns of social relations among social actors within a defined population are demonstrated allowing students to better understand the theory and application of social networks. Occasional.

Abbrev: (15 of 30 chars) Social Networks
Discussion with others: Approval from Psychology Dept attached.
Rationale: This course is the first to expose students to the theory and methods of social networking in society. As a result, students will look at the world in a very different way and gain a more complete understanding of research on topics such as power, wealth, health disparities, deviant behavior, etc.

Rosen College of Hospitality Management Course Additions

HFT 4XXX RCHM-TEA 3(3,0)
Tourist Behavior: PR: HFT 3700. Covers reasons for and results of consumption in tourism to better explain the drivers of both demand and supply in the tourism and hospitality industry. Spring, Summer, Fall.
Abbrev: (10 of 30 chars) Tour. Beh.
Discussion with others: Although general consumer behavior is offered at UCF, different dynamics of tourist behavior are not covered in the general format of this course.
Rationale: This is a new course that will be offered for students interested in having a minor in Tourism Management.

HFT 4XXX RCHM-TEA 3(3,0)
Tourism Policy, Development & Sustainability: PR: HFT 3700. Covers public policy and governance topics that underpin the sustainable development of tourism and their impact on strategies adopted across different sectors of the industry. Spring, Summer, Fall.
Abbrev: (22 of 30 chars) Tour. Pol. Dev. & Sus.
Discussion with others: No similar course is offered at Rosen College or UCF.
Rationale: This is a new course that will be offered for students interested in having a minor in Tourism Management.

2. Special Topics Additions

College of Business Administration Special Topics Additions

TAX 4932 BA-ACCT 3(3,0)
ST:Individual Federal Income Tax: PR: TAX 4001. Study of the basic theory, concepts, practice, and methods of determining the taxable income and tax liabilities of individuals. Occasional.
Abbrev: (32 of 30 chars) ST:Individual Federal Income Tax
Discussion with others: No conflicts identified
Rationale: To allow students to develop a broader knowledge base in taxation. TAX 4001 is a required course that focuses on federal taxation for business entities and this new course will focus on individual income tax.

College of Health and Public Affairs Special Topics Additions

CCJ 3930 HPA-CJ 3(3,0)
Origins of Criminal Justice Practices and Policies: PR: Sophomore Level. Course will examine a variety of social ills and critical events in the history of mankind that led to the development of criminal justice institutions. Occasional.
Abbrev: (34 of 30 chars) Origins of CJ Practices & Policies
Discussion with others: N/A
Rationale: Course was previously part of the Criminal Justice course offering inventory.

College of Sciences Special Topics Additions

SYO 3930 COS-SOC 3(3,0)
ST: Social Networks: Theory and Applications: PR: SYG 2000, or ANT 2000, or PSY 2012, or Junior Standing. Patterns of social relations among social actors within a defined population are demonstrated allowing students to better understand the theory and application of social networks. Occasional.
Abbrev: (15 of 30 chars) Social Networks
Discussion with others: Approval from Anthropology attached.
Rationale: This course is the first to expose students to the theory and methods of social networking in society. As a result, students will look at the world in a very different way and gain a more complete understanding of research on topics such as power, wealth, health disparities, deviant behavior, etc.

3. Course Revisions

College of Optics and Photonics Course Revisions

OSE 4410 Optoelectronics 3(3,0)
PR: EEE 3307C, OSE ~~3052.~~ 3052, CR: EEE 3350.
Introduction to the principles and design of semiconductor optoelectronic devices including photodiodes, solar cells, light-emitting diodes, laser diodes, and CCDs. Applications include photovoltaics, displays, imaging.
Rationale: Optoelectronics and the associated lab includes content requiring knowledge in semiconductors.
There is 1 program that lists OSE 4410: Photonic Science and Engineering (B.S.P.S.E.)

Rosen College of Hospitality Management Course Revisions

HFT 4394 Event Operations 3(3,0)
PR: All courses in the Event Management core, or C.I.
Planning and implementing a live event.

There are no programs that list HFT 4394.

HFT 4561 ~~Destination Marketing~~ Destination Marketing & Management 3(3,0)

PR: HFT ~~2500 and HFT~~ 3700.
~~Development of destination oriented~~ Covers principles, issues, strategies and processes in destination marketing ~~goals~~ and ~~strategies~~ management including planning, developing, distributing and evaluating destination products, by managing relations with ~~an emphasis on integrated destination marketing. Covers trends and challenges influencing destination marketing.~~ diverse stakeholders.
Abbrev (16 of 30): ~~Destination Marketing~~ Des. Mar. & Man.
Term Offered: ~~Occasional~~ Fall, Spring, Summer
Discussion with others: No similar course is offered at Rosen College or UCF.
Rationale: The contents of HFT 4561 and HFT 4736 have some overlaps; therefore, the two will be combined for a more holistic picture of the subject for students. HFT 4736 will be deleted from the program.
There are 2 programs that list HFT 4561: Hospitality Management (B.S.),Event Management (B.S.)

4. Course Deletions

5. Course Continuations

College of Health and Public Affairs Course Continuations

CCJ 4677 HPA-CJ 3(3,0)

Human Rights and Criminal Justice PR: CCJ 3024 or C.I. In-depth analysis of human rights movement and its potential impact upon criminal law, as well as the juvenile and criminal justice system.
Rationale: Course will be offered in the Fall 2017 term and every other Fall term thereafter.
There are no programs that list CCJ 4677.